

Dues Rebate for Active Members who held a Student Membership

NEA Bylaw 2-7.c. provides for a “credit to first-year Active members who join the Association during the first year of membership eligibility.”

The rebate form reflects the new $20.00 rebate amount that was approved by delegates at the NEA 2003 Representative Assembly (Bylaw Amendment #1).

The administrative procedures have not changed. Steps to follow are:

1. The application must be in the member's first year of educational employment.
2. The individual must pay Active dues in accordance with Bylaw 2-7.
3. The credit will be in the form for a rebate of twenty ($20) dollars for each year of Student membership --- up to four years.
4. To receive a rebate, the member should complete the application form (or send a letter) being certain to provide all requested information.
5. By May 1 of eligibility year the completed application can be mailed to: NEA Membership Management & Services, Attn.: Student Rebates, 1201 Sixteenth Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20036
6. NEA Membership Management & Services will verify the individual's eligibility for a rebate and mail a check in August of the applicable year.
