

WORKING “TO-THE-RULE”

INFORMATION FOR MEMBERS

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What does “work-to-rule” mean?

Working “to-the-rule” means performing our regularly assigned duties (“the rule” meaning those duties that are required) during the normal workday. It is meant to highlight the unpaid work educators do before and after school, on weekends, and during our lunch and planning periods.

Why do this now?

Because we are in the second year of a negotiated three-year agreement and BCPS is violating that deal by not funding our compensation package. This bargain was struck in the fall of 2023- the system and the county fiscal authority has known for a year and a half how much they agreed to. There is no excuse to not fund the agreed upon raises.

Won’t work-to-rule hurt students?

Baltimore County already has a turnover of near 10%. When our colleagues all over the state hear that BCPS has violated our negotiated agreement, they will be less likely to come here to fill vacancies. Meanwhile, many of us are frustrated and considering leaving. Shorting educators their promised raises increases turnover, which is truly harmful to students. We’re trying to fix that.

What activities are impacted during work-to-rule?

All voluntary work outside the duty day is impacted. See below for a full list.

What if my principal asks me to do something on that list?

If you haven’t already committed to a voluntary activity, politely and professionally let them know that your contract gives you the option to decline the request. A statement like this works well: “My contract gives me the right to decline that request, and because the Union is engaged in a work-to-rule for a fairer workplace, I’m declining that request to support my colleagues and my students.”

Is this a strike?

No, strikes in Maryland are prohibited. Because working to the rule means performing our regular duties, we are not withdrawing our contractually required labor.

What if we all call in sick at once?

That is not an option. Legally speaking, a “sick out” is considered a withdrawal of labor like a strike and it is therefore also prohibited in Maryland.

I'm an untenured teacher. Can I get in trouble for doing this?

No. Working to the rule means performing your contractual duties.

What should I do with my work at the end of the day?

Keep a running list of the tasks you are not able to perform under the time constraints of the regular duty day. At the end of the day, send your administrator the list and ask him/her what you would like them to prioritize for the following day. Put up an auto response on your email after the end of your duty day, and let parents know that you will respond to them during the regular duty day.

What else can I do to support our union's efforts?

Do your best to participate in the morning walk-in and afternoon walk-outs everyday of the work-to-rule. Do your best to attend other TABCO mobilizations and public actions. If you attend actions then you know you are doing the best you can to win what you deserve. Bring kids and spouses.

How can parents and families support our efforts?

- Email the Board of Education (boe@bcps.org) and demand that they fully fund the negotiated agreement.
